Northfield University Scholarship Rules

Merit Scholarship

The Merit Scholarship rewards outstanding academic performance. It covers 50% of annual tuition fees and is renewed every year as long as the student keeps meeting the criteria below.

Eligibility

- To qualify for the Merit Scholarship, a student must be in at least their second year of study.
- The student must hold a cumulative GPA of 3.5 or higher.
- The student must not currently hold a Sports Scholarship, because the two scholarships cannot be combined.

Students who meet all three conditions are automatically considered by the Scholarship Committee.

Sports Scholarship

The Sports Scholarship supports students who represent Northfield University in official competitions. It covers 30% of tuition fees plus the cost of training equipment.

Eligibility

- To qualify for the Sports Scholarship, a student must have a coach recommendation letter.

- A minimum GPA of 2.8 is required.

- Students must maintain attendance of at least 80% at team training sessions.

The Sports Scholarship can be renewed each year after a performance review by the Athletics Office.

How to Apply

Applications for all scholarships open on 1 March and close on 30 April. Submit the online application form through the student portal, attach your latest transcript, and upload any supporting documents.

Results are announced by 15 June. Successful students receive an award letter by email.

Appeals

A student who disagrees with a decision may appeal in writing to the Scholarship Committee within 14 days of receiving the decision. Appeals are reviewed within 10 working days.
